

Reg. No. :

Name :

Second Semester LL.M. Degree Examination, January 2020

Core Subjects

Paper IV – LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 75

Answer all questions, All questions carry equal marks.

1. (a) Examine the views of Bentham on the respective Spheres of law and morality.

OR

- (b) Discuss the Principle of hedonistic calculus propounded by Bentham and explain how far it is helpful to the legislature in determining the need for a good legislation in a particular issue.

2. (a) Do you think that the Indian Constitution is success in achieving its social goals. With respect to the Social Education and Economically backward Classes? – Illustrate with reasons.

OR

- (b) "The Conflic between Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles of State Policy is more apparent than real"–Critically comment.

3. (a) The concept of Parliamentary Sovereignty is a Paradox unless there is a differentiation between Legislative Power and Constituent Power – Critically comment this statement in the light of whether amending power is a Sovereign Power? – Refer to cases.

OR

- (b) “Any law made with a goal of achieving the egalitarian goals defined in the DPSP is ensured protection from Judicial Review”– Critically analyse the correctness of the statement Refecing to decided cases.
4. (a) Explain the Constitution and Function of “Standing Committee” of Lok Sabha in India and Compare the same with that of the Standing Committee of House of Commons of England.

OR

- (b) “Today in India the Independence of Judiciary is a myth”. Examine the Statement in the Light of the concept of Judicial accoutability and appointment of Judges to the Higher Judiciary.
5. (a) Explain how Judiciary exercise its control over Delegated Legislation.

OR

- (b) Write short note on
- (i) Govt. Paternalism and Govt. Maternalism.
 - (ii) Collectivism.
 - (iii) Colourable Legislation.

(5 × 15 = 75 Marks)