

Reg. No. :

Name :

Second Semester LL.M. Degree Examination, June 2016
Paper – IV : LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 75

Instructions : 1) Answer all questions.
2) All questions carry equal marks.

1. a) Discuss how far Bentham's principle of sympathy and antipathy influenced the Indian legislature.
OR
b) "Legislation can never be used as an instrument of revolutionary change, especially of a kind which aims at the establishment of an equality of possessions". Comment.
2. a) "The Directive principles of state policy set forth the humanitarian socialist percepts that were, and are the aims of the Indian Social Revolution". Comment.
OR
b) The relaxation of the traditional rule of locus standi had significantly contributed to the proactive legislative role played by the courts. Explain.
3. a) Private member's business is accorded a special place in the scheme of parliamentary procedure. Explain.
OR
b) Examine the scheme envisaged in the constitution for discharging legislative functions.
4. a) State the constitutional provisions which ensure executive accountability to Parliament.
OR
b) Describe the precautions taken in the constitution of India to see that the courts do not become super-legislatures.
5. a) Delegated legislation is considered as abdication of the legislative power by Parliament comment.
OR
b) It is difficult to draw a boundary line between executive and legislative powers in a parliamentary form of government under which the executive is responsible to the legislature. Explain.