

Reg. No. :

Name :

Second Semester LLM Degree Examination, February 2023

Paper IV : : LEGISLATIVE PROCESS

(Prior to 2021 Admission)

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 75

Answer all questions. All question carry equal marks.

1. (a) Critically examine the role of 'social engineering' theory while drafting a legislation.

OR

- (b) Elaborate the role of legislation as a source of law.

2. (a) Examine the Constitutional guidelines provided to ensure environmental justice via legislation.

OR

- (b) Critically examine the role of judiciary vis-a-vis the legislative process in India.

3. (a) Critically examine the special powers held by both the Houses of the Indian Parliament.

OR

- (b) Critically examine the role of various legislative committees in the legislative process.

4. (a) "No statute can confer this power [parliamentary supremacy] upon Parliament, for this would be to assume and act on the very power that is to be conferred." Examine this statement in the light of the Indian Constitution.

OR

- (b) Examine the significance of public opinion in the legislative process and how the same is guaranteed under the Indian Constitution.
5. (a) Examine the concept 'Delegatus non potest delegare' in relation to legislative action.

OR

- (b) Elaborate on the extent of judicial control over delegated legislation in India,

(5 × 15 = 75 Marks)
