

Reg. No. :

Name :

Second Semester L.L.M. Degree Examination, February 2023

Branch – Constitutional Law

Paper – I : CONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLES

(Prior to 2021 Admission)

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 75

I Answer five questions. Each question carries 15 marks.

1. (a) Explain Laski's views on sovereignty.

OR

(b) Analyse whether the development of international institutions under international law has eroded national sovereignty?

2. (a) Discuss the significance of Brandeis Brief.

OR

(b) Explain the concept of political question. Analyse the attitude of Indian judiciary as to judicial review of political question.

3. (a) Discuss the constitutional manifestations of eminent domain in India.

OR

(b) Compare and contrast presidential form and parliamentary form of governments.

4. (a) "We may view substantive due process as referring to the content or subject matter of a law, whereas procedural due process refers to the manner in which a law, an ordinance or an administrative practice or a judicial task is carried out, "Elucidate".

OR

- (b) Write short notes on both.

(i) Doctrine of eclipse

(ii) Doctrine of severability

5. (a) "The Indian Constitution is considered to be one of the best constitutions in the world. Critically evaluate this statement with emphasis or whether the constitution needs any reforms and if so, what?"

OR

- (b) The constitution is a treasure house of human rights. Discuss the role of the Indian Judicial in expanding the paradigms of human rights jurisprudence under the constitution.

(5 × 15 = 75 Marks)
